To Whom It May Concern:

The following is intended to notify Internet Archive of a copyright infringement pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 [17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(3)(A)] ("the Act"). This follows Landmark Education's prior notification of October 6, 2006, and is being re-issued solely for purposes of obtaining a subpoena pursuant to section 512, subsection (h) of the Act, as Internet Archive has already removed the offending videos from the website.

I am the General Counsel of Landmark Education, an international training and development company that delivers personal growth courses in twenty-one countries worldwide. Landmark Education is the owner of the copyright at issue. As General Counsel, I am authorized to act on Landmark Education's behalf.

We write to reiterate our objection to the September 24, 2006 posting on your site of a series of seven videos labeled "Introduction" and "Inside the Landmark Forum" (1 through 6 of 6) posted by "Asatigaire". The videos include portions of Landmark Education's copyrighted and proprietary course entitled "The Landmark Forum." Landmark Education has never authorized - and, in fact, strictly prohibits - the videotaping and public dissemination of the contents of its copyrighted course.

Not only do the videos infringe Landmark Education's registered copyright (TXu 1-120-461), they are replete with libelous statements which are severely damaging to individuals that have been inaccurately portrayed without their consent and to Landmark Education.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Sincerely,

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENA

(1) A party or an agency (responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified in compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party in attendance designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, serve at any time an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly conducts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (ii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend, be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or the demanding party to contest the claim.

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(i) subjects a person to undue burden

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unrelayed expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party; or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to an subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise obtained without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When inform that subject in a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection against preparation materials the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

DECLARATION OF ART SCHREIBER IN SUPPORT OF LANDMARK EDUCATION,
LLC'S SUBPOENA

I, Art Schreiber, declare as follows:

1 I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in California, and am general counsel for Landmark Education, LLC ("Landmark Education"). This declaration is made in support of Landmark Education's request for issuance of a 17 U.S.C. section 512(h) subpoena from the United District Court, Northern District of California.

2 On September 24, 2006, a series of seven videos labeled "Introduction" and Inside the Landmark Forum" (1 through 6 of 6) was posted by "Asaignaire" on the Web. The videos include portions of Landmark Education's copyrighted and proprietary course entitled "The Landmark Forum." Landmark Education has never authorized - and, in fact, strictly prohibits - the videotaping and public dissemination of the contents of its copyrighted course.

3 The subpoena Landmark Education seeks will be used only to obtain the identity of the alleged infringer, and the information will be used only for the purposes of protecting Landmark Education's copyright.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on this 18 day of October, 2006, at
